

1 2 3

The BCO programs support people to connect with the community through safe, interesting and engaging outings such as:

- Engaging with the community through local events, shows and markets
- Developing and practising skills and strategies to access and engage with the community (research, planning, using public transport)
- How to be safe in the community and what to do if lost

Active participation promotes a feeling of being valued in society.

COMMUNITY AND SAFETY

For more information, call and speak to Karina Piro (08) 8562 4855.