

Do you have ...

- A strong commitment to supporting the independence of people with a disability?
- A commitment to working within job description?

Can you.....

- obtain a Police Clearance?
- abide by a Code of Conduct?

'Inclusion, participation, community'

Barossa Enterprises Community Lifestyle Connexions program provides support and education to enable people to participate in their community in ways that they choose.

Volunteers play an enormous role in enriching and empowering people with a disability achieve a 'good life'.

Gemeinschaft Volunteer Project

Community Lifestyle

Want to learn more?

Register your interest with

Catherine on

Ph 8562 4855

The Department for Communities and Social Inclusion has contributed funds towards this Project.

As a volunteer with Barossa Enterprises you will work closely with qualified staff to provide support to people with a disability engage in every-day activities.

- Support with recreational activities such as walking, swimming, visiting the library, going for coffee, going to a local event
- Assist with independent living skills, such as cooking, shopping, reading
- Transport/driver (BE mini-bus)
- Share a passion for hobbies such as jigsaw puzzles, crafts, art, furniture restoration, photography etc
- Support people with a disability work out in BE's gym program

27 Samuel Rd
Nuriootpa SA 5355
p:08 85624855
f: 08 8562 4844
e: reception@barossaent.com.au

Barossa Enterprises Gemeinschaft Volunteer Project

Gemeinschaft – is a literal translation for ‘community’ in German. It describes a community united by common interests, personal or family ties. It’s a term which describes those old fashioned, often rural close knit communities where everyone works together to support each other in business and daily life. In a positive sense, each person’s business is everyone’s business, so the community works together to support a successful outcome.